

LOCAL AUTHOR CONSIGNMENT CONTRACT

Please initial next to each line below.

1. Bring two copies of the book you want to place on consignment to the store during business hours.

Initial _____

2. I acknowledge that the copies of the book(s) I am bringing to Story on the Square for consignment have not been published through an Amazon source.

Initial _____

3. Sign the contract and pay the $25.00 consignment fee to Story on the Square. This includes online and in-store consignment.

Initial _____

4. Once the contract has been signed and the fee is paid, Story on the Square will add your title to our Indie Commerce database in order to sell books online at www.storyonthesquare.com, in addition to displaying the books in our designated Local Author section.

Initial _____

5. The contract goes for a term of 90 days. The author will receive 60% of the retail price and Story on the Square will retain 40% of the retail price. Checks will be mailed at the month's end of your contract's date of expiration. For example, if your contract expires on March 15, your check will be mailed at the end of March.

Initial _____

6. If your book(s) sell(s) out before 90 days have passed, Story on the Square will contact you for more books to place in the store. We will initiate another contract. No fee will be required to re-stock books.

Initial _____

7. If the book does not sell within the 90-day term, Story on the Square will pull the books from our stock and contact you to collect the books within 30 days.

Initial _____

8. If unsold books have not been picked up after 30 days, Story on the Square will have no financial liability for the books. The books will be considered abandoned and will be donated to a literary charity of our choice.

Initial _____

9. Story on the Square is not liable for any damages or theft incurred while books are on display or during signature.

Initial _____

10. Story on the Square is under no obligation to review, promote, or prominently display the consigned books beyond placing them on our designated consignment shelves.

Initial _____

11. Author can initiate another contract after a period of 90 days of the original contract. No Consignment Fee will apply.

Initial _____

12. Story on the Square will contact the Author within 30 days of signing contract to notify them of consignment status.
